

The Gerat Need of the Hour.

We have not seen the great need of the hour more clearly and truthfully set forth in fewer words than in the following from the Boston Journal of the 12th. Let Vermont profit by the suggestions.

MORE SOLDIERS.

We consider that about the only important practical remark that was made at the grand meeting in Faneuil Hall, was Gen. Willard's declaration that we need 150,000 more men in the field. "Gen. McClellan," said he, "I speak what I know—needs 150,000 men on the Potomac to-night, and if he had them the day before him would be vanquished in a week." Can we hear these things and be unmoved? We know they are true. We know that Gen. Fremont needs 100,000 in order to enable him to go down to New Orleans on the tide of victory. We know that Gen. Grant wants more men to give his position at Cairo and Kentucky the impregnability which its importance demands. We know that the only apprehension felt about Gen. Rosecrans in Western Virginia is owing to the inferiority of his forces to the rebels pitted against him. We know that if Gen. Wool had more men at Fortress Monroe he could put them to a use of which the Hatteras expedition was only a slender hint. In short, we know that the transcendent need of the campaign at this stage is more men.

Here we are in the second week in autumn, when we ought to be beginning to move—but we cannot move. We are hampered and pinned to the ground everywhere, for simple want of forces. We, with our twenty millions of men, are still waiting day by day, and wondering when and where the enemy—with their eight millions to draw upon—will attack us! This ought not to be—at least any longer. We let the past go, and take the matter up as it is right before us. We are at the beginning of the very best season of the year for pushing on the war, when, if we were duly prepared, we might break the front of this rebellion in three months and display a campaign that would be of immortal honor and priceless value to us as a nation. If it is allowed to pass unimproved, the cold weather will set in, materially interfering with all movements, and, in consequence, enhancing the cost of all operations. And yet, it requires three months at least to make good soldiers. Every one, then, can see just where we are. But, "we can afford to wait better than the rebels." So we can if we are employing the interval better, otherwise not. If they are to continue to have the most men at every probable point of conflict, drilled and officered at least as well as ours, then we shall certainly have a new sense of the old maxim that "delays are dangerous."

How shall we get more men into the field? The press can do much more in this direction than it has done hitherto. Every man can do something within his sphere—go himself, or make the way clear for his neighbor to go, or contribute his mite of influence toward arousing a deeper feeling of interest in this stupendous conflict. Here is where we all fail, and let us set about reformation. The Government can do much. If the enlistments are not going on fast enough, and they have not been till within a few days certainly, a remedy should be attempted. Drafting should be resorted to, in the absence of other means—but it will do no harm to remember that the capture of the Hatteras forts has been more efficacious than a general order would have been. But whatever methods may be pursued, the one result must be realized—we must have more men in the field within a short time.

The Vermont Cavalry Regiment.

Col. PLATT publishes in the Burlington Times the following:

To MY FELLOW CITIZENS:—Being directed by the Hon. Simon Cameron, Secretary of War, to enlist and organize a regiment of Cavalry in the State of Vermont, I shall establish Recruiting Offices in ten different localities in this State, where I am satisfied a company will immediately enlist, consisting of 1 Captain, 1 First Lieutenant, 1 Second Lieutenant, 1 First Sergeant, 1 Company Quartermaster-Sergeant, 4 Sergeants, 8 Corporals, 2 Buglers, 2 Farriers and Blacksmiths, 1 Saddler, 1 Wagoner and 72 Privates. The Regiment will consist of 1 Colonel, 1 Lieutenant Colonel, 2 Majors, 1 Adjutant, 1 Regimental Quartermaster, 1 Surgeon, 1 Assistant Surgeon, 1 Sergeant-Major, 1 Regimental Quartermaster-Sergeant, 1 Regimental Commissary Sergeant, 1 Hospital Steward, 2 Principal Musicians, 16 Musicians for Band, and 10 Companies of 65 officers and men each.

The Uniforms, Horses, Horse Equipments &c., for each Company will be furnished as fast as such Companies are mustered into service. The officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates organized as above set forth will, in all respects, be placed on the footing as to pay and allowances, of similar corps of the Regular Army. Their allowances for clothing will be $3.50 per month, and the cost of transportation from the place of muster to the place of rendezvous will be paid by the Quarter Master at the latter station.

The Regiment will be organized with all possible expedition. Any information respecting the organization of the Regiment can be obtained of Governor Fairbanks at St. Johnsbury, of Adjutant General Baxter at his office in Rutland, or of the Commanding Officer at Burlington.

LEMUEL B. PLATT.
Burlington, Sept 14, 1861.

Southern Items.

The Dyersburgh, Tenn. Recorder advocates the election of Gov. Pickens, of South Carolina, to the Vice Presidency of the Confederate States.

The Charleston Mercury says that four men of the crew of the Jeff Davis have been arrested on the charge of an attempt to kill the Captain and strand the vessel.

Accounts still arrive of damage to the crops by the recent rains.

The Richmond Whig says the forward tobacco crop has suffered.

The Knoxville Whig of Sept. 7, contains a card from Parson Brownlow, where he states substantially that he will not be a party to any schemes of rebellion, and that all who do must suffer the penalty, and that he yields his extreme position through necessity, and confesses he has not the courage to meet unarmed eleven States fully armed.

THE FIFTH REGIMENT. Yesterday the Richmond, Brandon, and Middlebury Companies arrived, making eight companies that are now on the ground. The remaining two companies are expected to-day.

About sixty tents are now "pitched" and most of the companies staid on the ground last night, and appeared to be well satisfied with the "tent-camp."

Col. Smalley arrived yesterday and was busily engaged during the day in giving directions as to the formation of the camp, and seeing that his command were well provided for. We understand that it is his intention to give those captains who served in the First Vermont Regiment posts of honor, according to their rank, which gives Capt. Chandler of the Phelps' Guards the right of the line.—Messenger.

Dr. S. I. Allen of White River Junction, has been appointed surgeon of the Fourth Regiment of Vermont Volunteers, by Gov. Fairbanks.—His son, Samuel I. Allen, Jr., accompanies him to the seat of war.—Windsor Journal.

Lieut. Seaton, of Capt. Weston's Company of Sharpshooters, was in town this morning.—The Company is assembled at West Randolph, with full ranks, numbering 105 men, and exceedingly anxious to get to Washington before the great battle comes off. They will take the oath to-day, and probably start for the general rendezvous of the Regiment at Weehawken, N. J., to-morrow, going by way of New London.

The Vermont Company will not be the least distinguished in that Regiment, either for accuracy of practice, or general good behavior and bravery. They are a stout Company, and almost all men of character and acknowledged worth in the towns from which they come.—Free Press, 13th.

RECRUITS.—The soldiers recruited by Capt. Andross in this village were inspected on Wednesday by the Regimental Surgeon, Dr. Allen, and are expected to leave for Brattleboro' to-day. They are to join recruits from Danville and form a company. R. W. Laird of the Danville recruits has been chosen Captain, and A. W. Fisher, also of Danville, 1st Lieutenant, and J. B. Brooks of Bradford, 2d Lieutenant.—Telegraph.

The Markets.

CAMBRIDGE MARKET, Sept. 11.

At Market 550 Cattle, about 100 Bees and 150 stores consisting of Working Oxen, Cows and one, two and three year olds.

Prices—Market Beef—Extra $6.25 a 6.50; first quality $5.75 a 6.00; 2d, $5.00 a 5.25.

Working Oxen—$40 to 120.

Cows and Calves—$24.30 to 45.

Calves—$20.00 to 30.00.

Yearlings—$10 to 12.

Two year old—$12 to 15.

Three year old—$17 to 19.

Sheep and Lambs—$100 at market—Prices in lots, $1.25 a 1.50. Extra, $2.17, to 2.75.

Hides, 4 to 5, Pelts, $0.25 a $1.00. Calf Skins, 7 to 8c. Tallow, 5 to 6c.

REMARKS.—Beef sold about the same as last week; a few large choice Oxen brought $1.40; small about the same as last report. Sheep and Lambs—Prices same as last week, with the exception of a few lots to close up sold at a slight decline.

BRISTOL MARKET, Sep. 11.

At Market 500 beef cattle, 250 stores, 400 sheep and 400 pigs.

Prices—Beef Cattle—Extra $6.75; first quality, $6.50 a $7.00; 2d quality, $6.00 a 6.50; 3d $4.75 a 5.00.

Working Oxen—$100 to $120 a $130.

Milk Cows—$4 to 47, common, $18 to 19.

Calves—$20 to 40.

Yearlings—$10 to 12.

Two year old—$12 to 15.

Three year old—$18 to 19.

Sheep and Lambs—$1.25 to 1.50; extra $1.75 to 4.00.

Hides—5 to 7c.

Swine—A larger number at market, but no advance in prices.

REMARKS.—The price of Beef is about the same as last week. A few pairs of very extra sold as high as $7 per 100 lbs. Sheep and Lambs remain about the same as last week. Swine—A larger number at market, but no advance in prices.

THE undersigned having received a Commission as Recruiting Officer, from Col. L. B. PLATT, who has been commissioned by the War Department to raise a in Vermont, to serve during the present war for the maintenance of the Federal Government, earnestly calls upon the patriotic sons of Washington County to avail themselves of this opportunity to join this most efficient arm of the National Defence. The recruits, the chief of Washington, is assisted, and let the Country called after his great name answer. First of all the Counties in the State to the call of the Republic for help. I have twenty-five days in which to raise eighty good and able men, who are ready to strike for their country. Such are the men I now want. I can be found at BAILEY BROTHERS' STORE, Montpelier, at all times, and shall be happy to receive calls from all wishing to enlist.

REGIMENT OF CAVALRY

JOHN D. BARTLETT.

Montpelier, Sept. 9, 1861.

MUSIC

AND

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

GEO. W. WILDER,

MONTPELIER, VT.

Is Agent for the sale of the following celebrated Musical Instruments:

HALLET, DAVIS & CO'S PIANO FORTES,

STEINWAY & SONS' PIANO FORTES,

CHICKERING & SONS' PIANO FORTES,

ALEXANDER CHURCH & PARLORE ORGANS,

STEVENS & JEWETT'S CHURCH ORGANS,

G. A. PRINCE & CO'S MELODEONS,

Also, keeps constantly for sale all kinds of

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS,

SHEET MUSIC, MUSIC BOOKS,

And a general assortment of Musical Merchandise,

300 Pianos to let. Pianos and Melodeons tuned and repaired. A liberal discount will be made to Teachers of Music desirous of purchasing Musical and Musical Instruments.

FRESH FRUITS

All the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

At the year. Improved Bottles for preserving, at

EMERY'S

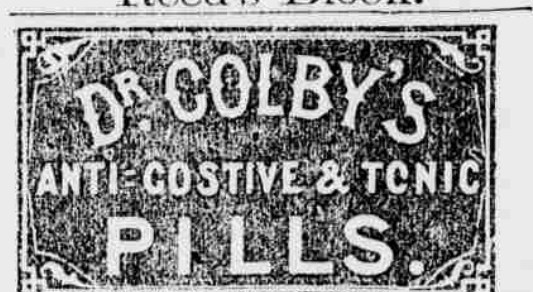

COFFINS

IN ALL VARIETIES

—AT—

BARCOCK & CO.'S,

Reed's Block.

A CANADIAN REMEDY

For Constiveness, Irregularity and Debility of the Digestive Organs, Inducing Headache, Lassitude, Nervousness, General Prostration of the Mind and Body, Paralysis, &c.

A moment's reflection ought to convince a sensible man of the folly and danger of constantly dosing with Cathartic Medicines. The practice is pernicious and suicidal. An experience of forty years has taught me that the constantly increasing evils of constiveness are fearfully aggravated by the too free use of Cathartics. The American people are fast becoming a nation of dyspeptics by their artificial modes of life. Drastic Cathartics increase the irritability, and prostrate the strength of the digestive organs.

The Pills now offered are especially designed to allay this irritability, and at the same time to invigorate and strengthen all the functions of digestion, while they are gently laxative. They are easily and quickly assimilated. They are so mild and invigorating that one is not reminded by any disagreeable effects that he has taken medicine. Business Men, Students, Professional Men, Females, and all persons leading a confined or sedentary life, should try them.

The undersigned Physicians, cheerfully certify to the high professional standing of Dr. Colby of Stanstead, one of the oldest and best Physicians, and to the excellent qualities of his Anti-Costive & Tonic Pills, which we have used in our practice, and highly approve.

J. B. GIBSON, M. D., Dunham, C. E.

C. E. COITON, M. D., Cowansville.

CHARLES BROWN, M. D., "

G. O. SOMMER, M. D., Moore, C. E.

NORMAN CLEVELAND, M. D., Barnston.

N. JENKS, M. D., "

C. W. COWLES, M. D., Stanstead.

JOSEPH BREADON, M. D., Surgeon, R. N.

BENJAMIN DAWSON, M. D., Coaticook.

LEWEL, RICHMOND, M. D., Derby Line.

M. G. GLINES, M. D., Conpton, C. E.

J. C. BUTTERFORD, M. D., Newport, C. E.

Prepared by Dr. M. F. COLBY, Stanstead, C. E., and Dorby Line, Vermont.

Sold where medicine is sold generally.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly safe as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and cause no nausea or sickness, and allay all nervousness and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and is so chemically combining that it is not only a powerful tonic, but it is also perfectly safe, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Both by the thoroughly skilled in medicine, and by the laity, it has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It is a powerful laxative, and restores the bowels to their original purity, and thus restores and renders